

Slave Questionary

The following questionary is not to be seen as a wish list which will be fulfilled, this questionary replaces the talk we usually would have before our session starts the usual way and not right at the door. Checkmark all the boxes which describe what you are or like, read it carefully! If you can't checkmark something write it on the lines being there. If there is something else beside all the things listed here you have the chance to write that particular something at the end of this questionary. Print it and hand me this questionary when you arrive in my studio!
